"As a chaperone, I thought I was going on the Winter Meltdown [RVR retreat] simply for crowd control, but the adults were transformed, too! Every time I attend, I come away spiritually refreshed and revived. Watching teenagers participate in services so fully is deeply moving, and on top of it they have so much fun! I know God is using RVR to plant seeds in hearts that He will continue to grow."

"Every year I watch our church's youth group, pastors, and chaperones come back from these weekends [at RVR] really fed—physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Everything I've heard from people who attend makes me want to do what I can to keep RVR doing for others what it has done for my daughter, my grandchildren and their friends, and my church."

~ Shirley Hooper

Grandmother & RVR 2.0 Donor,
Wife of the late Bob Hooper,
MD State Senator 1997-2007

"I had a hard time in school as one of the only Christians. It made me doubt God. On my first Winter Meltdown weekend at RVR, I was blown away meeting people my age who loved God—it was so encouraging and I went home completely changed! Every year after that I brought more friends we watched each other grow—it was so powerful. It gave me confidence and I built relationships that I still have to this day."

"When I first came to RVR on a scholarship at age 14, I thought everyone here was CRAZY. That level of fun was foreign to me!

I hadn't had much of a childhood and my mom was on disability, so God used RVR to teach me how to have fun, how to laugh, and how to be my real self. And RVR gave me a place to radically grow in my faith, especially in the Teens-in-Training (TNT) program. RVR provides so much mentoring! I worked year-round retreats, became a CIT, and was a Day Camp Counselor in 2017.

Now I'm at Bluefield College majoring in Criminal Justice and Psychology. God has used RVR to show me how to be fierce in speaking truth, in learning & defending His Word, & in being the person He made me to be."
